Supply Chain Forum - The Digital Transformation of Supply Chain

April 26, 2018

AGENDA
Highline College – Building 2

8:30 a.m.	Registration w/refreshments
9:00 a.m.	Welcome and Introductions	Alice Madsen, Executive Dean of Instruction, Professional Technical Education
9:15 a.m.	Overview/Key Note - "The Internet of Things" -Cloud Computing, Big Data, AI	Bryn Heimbeck, President, Trade Tech
10:00 a.m.	Panel #1 – Disruptive Technologies: Discuss the emerging technologies that will have an effect on industry and on workforce development (who will be training talent for industry) (employer/experts)	--Laura Hill, Perkins Coie-- Autonomous vehicles (ships, trucks, drones) --Jagan Nemani, Entrepreneur in Residence at Madrona Venture Labs, Blockchain Moderator: Bryn Heimbeck
11:30 a.m.	Lunch / Key note speaker Artificial Intelligence	Terry Dell, The Movement Company
1:15 p.m.	Panel #2 Student Panel	Moderator: Terry Dell - Ederly Beausilien – Highline College; CIS Student - Alana Dacosta – Highline College - Jay Meyers – Highline College; Global Trade/Supply Chain Student - Shane Moore – Pierce College; HSEM BAS Student
2:00 p.m.	Panel #3 – Policy: Policy experts and legislators/council members on how policy will be impacted/need to adapt to emerging technologies	--Steve Marshall, Transportation Technology Partnership Manager for the City of Bellevue --Alisha King, Emergency Manager, WATECH --Joseph Williams, ICT Sector Lead for Governor Jay Inslee Moderator: Sam Kaplan
3:15 p.m.	Break

3:30 p.m.	Panel #4- faculty panel	Moderator: Lindsey Williams, Director, Agriculture Center of Excellence
4:45 p.m.	Summary
5:00 p.m.	Hosted networking event	Hosted event with food and refreshments Join us and enjoy some Walla Walla College Vintners Wines